And they want your feedback also. So, please write back. After all, this is your agricultural society and your fairgrounds!

So, what do you say, let's moooooooooooooove along:

Awards

Bet you didn't know our fair last year won some awards. Talk about a blue ribbon effort! The 2009 Montgomery County Fair received four communication excellence awards from the Ohio Fair Managers Association, which presented the awards back in January at its annual Ohio Fair Managers Convention in Columbus. The awards included first place for our newspaper flyer, first place for our fair book cover, second place for a radio ad, and second place for our website home page. (www.montcofair.com).

Entries are submitted from the 2009 county fairs across the state and judged by the Advertising Federation Consultants from Columbus for the Ohio Fair Managers Association. Montgomery County was honored in four out of eight communication categories for large fairs of 65,000 fair guests and more in attendance
